ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS

7. a certification or a self-declaration of English language knowledge;
8. a letter of reference from the supervisor/consultant in support of the application.

ART. 8.2 – Submission of applications

Applications can be submitted by filling out the form on the online platform, from March 9 to April 14, 2026 (noon, UTC +2). Applicants must submit their applications, together with all the documents listed above, by filling in the online application at the following link <https://universitycorridors.unhcr.it/>

Submission of fraudulent study documents is a serious crime. All documents submitted by applicants will be carefully checked by the selection committee. The attached documentation, published in pdf format, must be readable and clear, under penalty of exclusion from selection. After submitting application, it will not be possible to modify it.

Any incomplete or incorrectly compiled applications will not be considered.

Applicants must select only 1 master's degree course provided by the University of Foggia and can only apply for up to 2 universities participating in the UNICORE 8.0 project.

This is a mandatory requirement: failure to comply with this clause will result in the immediate rejection of the application.

ART. 9 – Selection process

The selection process will be carried out in two steps:

- Step 1: evaluation of the documents submitted for the application;
- Step 2: online interview.

ART. 9.1 – step 1: evaluation of documents received

The admissions committee will evaluate the documents according to the following criteria:

- a) academic training and GPA (score: 0-20);
- b) CV assessment: professional experience and personal skills (score: 0-10);
- a) consistency between the education background and the chosen master's degree course (score: 0-10);

The maximum score awarded in the first step will be 40 points.

Candidates receiving a score of less than 25 will not be admitted to step 2 of the selection process. At the end of step 1, a provisional ranking will be published and only the first 4 candidates will be admitted to step 2 (online interview).

In case of same scores, the youngest candidate comes first.

Candidates admitted to step 2 will receive an email notification.

The provisional ranking will be published on the University of Foggia web site www.unifg.it and on the web page <https://www.unifg.it/it/unicore>

Università di Foggia

ART. 9.2 – step 2: online interview

Candidates admitted to step 2 will be invited to take an online interview, with the Admissions Committee, where the following will be assessed:

- personal skills;
- technical skills;
- knowledge of the English language.

The maximum score awarded in the second step will be 40 points.

Candidates will be informed by email about the date and time of the interview.

Before the interview, the applicant must show the Refugee Identity Card or PoR Card sent together with the application for admission.

ART. 9.3 – Formulation and approval of the final ranking list

The short-list will be formulated by the admission committee by summing up the partial results obtained in the two selection phases (step 1 and step 2). Candidates with a total score of less than 50/80 at the end of the two steps will not be considered eligible. Candidates will be listed in descending order of score. In case of equal score, the youngest candidate comes first.

The ranking list will be approved by Rector's Decree. The winner will be notified by email, and the final ranking of merit list will be published on the University of Foggia website www.unifg.it and, in detail, on the web page <https://www.unifg.it/it/unicore>

ART. 9.4 – Acceptance

The winner must accept the scholarship by responding to the communication, sent via email from the University of Foggia, within 10 days of receipt. Not replying within the above-mentioned deadline, will result in the loss of admission and the relevant financial benefits. Acceptance of the scholarship means that the applicant unreservedly approves the benefits offered by the UNICORE 8.0 Project under the terms and conditions set out in this call for applications.

By accepting, the winning candidate also confirms under their own responsibility that they do not fall under any incompatibility conditions set out in Article 5 of this notice.

ART. 9.5 – Scrolling of ranking and reassignment of available positions

In case of winner's rejection of the scholarship for the admission to the master's degree course, the University of Foggia will proceed with a scrolling of the ranking list by assigning the scholarship to the next eligible candidate.

If vacancies still arise at the end of the ranking list, the University of Foggia will be entitled to search for a suitable candidate within the ranking lists of the project partner universities. The successful candidate must meet in any case the specific qualifications required by the master's degree courses provided by the University of Foggia.

ART. 10 – Scholarships and renewals

The amount of the scholarship, relating to the first academic year, will be credited as follows:
